- Auditions for Fall Theatre are today at 3 p.m., tonight at 7 p.m. and tomorrow at 3 p.m. in the Little Theatre of the abbey church. There are three 10 minute plays, with roles for a total of four guys and six girls. One play has been chosen especially for less experienced actors to get a taste of being onstage at the Academy. You need to attend only one session to audition, and there is nothing to prepare in advance. Information sheets are all over the school, in the school office, and outside Fr. Dom's office. Don't miss this great acting opportunity!
- Last chance for anyone wanting to get involved with the Saint Bede Academy parade which will be held next Thursday at 5:00 p.m. If you can decorate a car, truck or get more elaborate with a hayrack see Mrs. Prokup this morning. Let's make this parade a success by having all of our groups represented! We need your participation. But above all, it's going to be a Bruintastic time! Come join the fun.
- Sydney Eustice, Sarah Crowe, McKenzie Billhorn & Michael Langham please see Coach McGunnigal today during homeroom.
